THE 1966 QUIPS AND CRANKS

OF DAVIDSON COLLEGE

DAVIDSON, NORTH CAROLINA

EDITOR—ARNOLD H. SNIDER, III

BUSINESS MANAGER—WILLIAM B. McGUIRE, JR.

PROLOGUE

Davidson is anchored to a tradition which takes the form of events such as Homecoming or the freshman cake race, but its tradition also encompasses the routine things that are a part of every student's life and that seldom change from year to year. It is the personalities of the community and the trivia of the daily routine that comprise this gentle side of tradition.

But this year has been something more. Attitudes have changed in regard to the fraternity system, the social life, and the honor system. Our teams played well and were well-supported by the students and new facilities such as the tennis courts were added by the college. Beyond all of this change was a concern by the entire college community for the direction the college is taking in many areas. It is this concern which portends a greater degree of change in the future.

The 1966 Quips and Cranks attempts to catch the essence of these contrasting aspects by portraying students as they are involved in and influenced by both sides of the Davidson experience. If it has done this, then it has served its purpose and been worthwhile.

TRADITION

I

Davidson was meant to be a tradition.
Built on the belief that strong men
Should be educated men
It could have been nothing else.

For a moment it is the gentle side of tradition
Which we must see.
We must see it and still remember
How cranky and doddering it can be,
But the gentle side remains, in
The trees, the buildings,
The ghosts of a hundred years ago.

And beyond this there is the land,
The land of gentility, of courage,
Of scholarly men who lived their learning.

Each of us counts for his share of the present.
But years pass, men change.
That is how things happen.
The past must be a part of us.
Especially here.

The gentle side of tradition is
A child of recollection.
It is born in the remembering
Of comfortable places and times,
Of things which cause us
To wish against change.

Cop Linker is still the college's
Major source of revenue.
Freshmen run that mile and a half
Get sick.
For a cake that has been
Sitting in the sun for two hours.
That is their initiation.
Later they are allowed to Join in skeptic laughter and
Butchery of changeless beasts of sacrifice.

An endless pattern of repetition.
Things and places where you feel good
To say that you've been there before—
And will come back again if you want to.

Expressed in terms unique
And understood only by those Who have been a part of the stream themselves.

Chapel is good for a quick nap,
Vespers for a longer one,
If you know where to sit.
Doc Woods seems to weather
the old jokes
Which never change
With considerable aplomb.
More Playboys read, less sold,
Than any place in the wor'd.

A library carrel many times
Becomes an inner sanctum
For concentration and study.

A smoke is welcome
To break the monotony—
Then back to the books
Till twelve or later.

No one of these nights stand out.
Just part of the routine.

In this place even the most detestable of institutions
Would quite likely be missed in its passing.
Something would surely have to be found
To take its place.
What is a joke without an object?
Perhaps it is time to admit that
Youth's mockery of that which has gone before him
Is one way of speaking love.

*For poise, I picked up a stone
And threw it at a tree.*

SALINGER.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT D. GRIER MARTIN

A college president has it tough.
Faculty, students, and trustees
Flock to him for support.
But their requests are often contradictory.

He must be
The arbiter,
The representative,
The congenial host,
And the prime mover.
His dynamism moves the institution.

DEAN OF STUDENTS RICHARD C. BURTS

It's difficult to change your image
In an atmosphere in which
"Tied hands" has become a cliché.
When the only contact you have with students
Concerns parking tickets,
Academic probation,
Make-up reviews,
And overcutting chapel.

DEAN OF THE FACULTY FRONTIS W. JOHNSTON

The academic side—
His domain.
Keeping tabs on the faculty—
His responsibility.
The standards and range of curricula—
His judgment.
Seemingly aloof from the students
But a greater indirect influence
Than any other.

The first Greek-letter fraternity.
 The oldest way of honoring scholarship in our land.
 To be chosen entitles one to join,
 In a manner of speaking,
 With great men who have worn the key
 In years and centuries which are past.

For some men the key is a ticket,
 For others a token.
 A tradition of learning
 Which carries the warning
 That a man who has won the key
 Must do something more
 Than wear it.

Election to office at Davidson
 Portends success in later years.
 It also nearly guarantees reelection
 For at least the next four.
 The things a reputation can do.
 Omicron Delta Kappa at Davidson
 Honors a man for being elected
 To lead his fellows.

Token or ticket, this key,
 Like its scholarly counterpart,
 Marks the man who wears it
 As one more able,
 At least more influential,
 Than those who elect him.
 It also obligates him to Use that ability.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Traditional organ of student government
(contradiction in terms)

We debate the Issues:

Linker, Burts, the Wildkitten—Nothing.

Form given to the student voice formless,
Demanding more than possibility.

Accomplishing more than acknowledgment.
Unappreciated, in ritual criticized,

We sing moderato.

Overseer of apathy

Creator, Redeemer of Honor, Socials, Rules
Bulwark of Bull, we speak ditto, etc. etc.

Student Body President
Bill Council

Left to right: Clark, Thomas, Timmons, McKnight, Marion, Council, Cannon, Fagg, Powell, Bryan, Miller, Prosser.

An endless stream of polls and referendums.

The presidential forum—an important but poorly-attended aspect of elections.

Recorder Kem Anderson swears in a witness.

Honor Court Chairman
Jim Stokes

HONOR COURT

A closed meeting of the student body.
The hushed whispers.
A dismissal is announced.
A friend is gone in the batting
Of an eye.
I am indignant.
The happy hangmen have axed another.
I demand to know why—
And I find out.
My anger subsides.
But I wonder if my trust is Well-placed, nonetheless.
Such power.
Honor is such an abstract thing.
What does it mean?
A trial is the reality—
And there's the rub.
Insight, Equity, Courage,
A future hangs in the balance.

Left to right: St. Clair, Hunt, Whitehead, Snider, Finlayson, Nichols.

Questioning a witness are Armfield, Burks, Davis, Goodstein, Anderson, and Stokes.

FRESHMAN COUNCIL

The freshman year—unglamorous, unrewarding
Quite a come-down from high school.
You're too busy to take part.
Too lowly and unsophisticated
To have any influence with upperclassmen.
You can't even vote.
The council is all you've got
To boost your ego.

FRESHMAN CAMP

Rev. Will directed the camp under the auspices of the YMCA.

A time to make new friends
To meet upperclassmen.
To learn about college life.
To gain some confidence in yourself.
To realize that it's going to be
A long winter.

Dr. Charles Johnson from St. Andrews College addressed the assembly.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Editors tend to plan beyond their means.
They don't want their dreams of
The ideal newspaper or annual Spoiled for lack of funds.
Business managers are stingy.
They want a small budget
So they will not have to do much selling
Or be caught short.
This board tries to resolve the conflict.

Chairman John Todd and Mr. Currie, the advisor.

Left to right: Snider, B., McGuire, Welling, Snider, A., Vick, Coleman.

Section editors: Mangum, Marion, Sartorius, Little, Devane.

Bill McGuire, Business Manager; Alva Whitehead, Asst. Editor; Britt Snider, Editor.

WILDCAT HANDBOOK

To the freshman
It provides a look at his new roommate.
To the fraternity man
It is a place to write comments.
To the staff
It is a place to be understanding upperclassmen.
To student leaders
It is a chance to improve their image.
And to Queens girls
It is generally rather scathing.

The Davidsonian

We come forth weekly, not daily.
Is our frequency
A comment on the place?
Yes — and — No.
Yes, because this is
A low-key place
And everyone knows everything
Before it is reported.
No, because we strive for excellence.
Quality — not quantity.
Is not this way
The better one?

A yearbook is like
A term paper
That always seems to get put off
Despite the best intentions of the staff
At the outset.
The pressure of deadlines
Places the responsibility
On the editor.
He must push if
Things are to go.
But after all,
He will receive
Most of the credit
In the end—
If any is given.

The status quo

Usually reigns supreme
At D.C.

Here ("Where is that?")

The old is the new

"I have a novel idea."

A change from

Humor to Whatnot.

We'll call it

The Miscellany:

A Davidson Review.

This was done.

Some complained,

Most didn't care,

Those that mattered

Applauded and supported.

We will continue:

The new must start

Somewhere.

Sacred cows and young skeptics
Are always very much in season.
The military reconciles itself
To the beatings which it must take.

Strange—attempts to lynch tradition
So often become traditions themselves.

Duty, honor, country
Smothered by rifle-cleaning,
Haircuts, pistol-belts, and Brasso.
Busy work it seems,
And often is.

The brass at work.

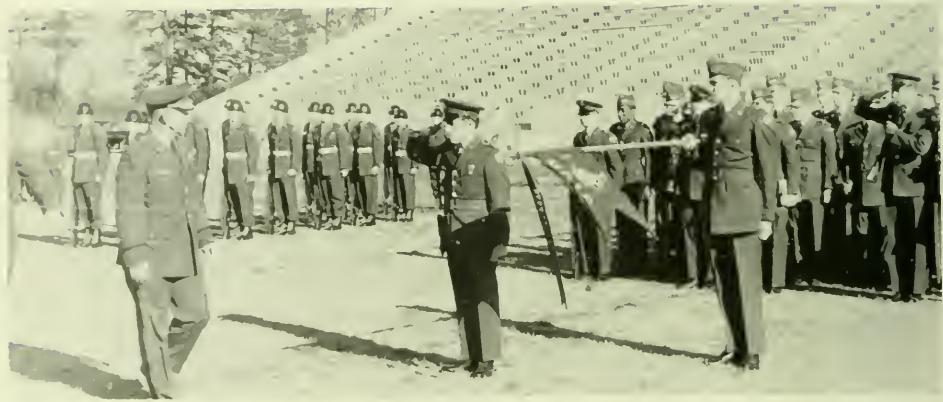

Come on, let's get together.

The best moment of all.

Shoes need a little work.

But then the casualty figures
So unthinkable
Count a generation stunned,
Watching itself going to
The war that could never happen.
A friend is dead.
Perhaps only someone we knew.
For the first time
It seems something less than trivial.

As most of you know, this is an M 1, etc., ditto, etc.

The reflection of a majority
With similar ideals.
A dissipation of the myth
Of "liberal" collegians.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FORUM

International is a realm
A million miles from Davidson,
It seems.
Yet our world demands
From its people
A growing consciousness
Of world affairs.

Past generations have felt
Secure in their isolation.
This can no longer be true.

BUSINESS-ECONOMICS CLUB

No major field
Is more divorced
From its real-life counterpart
Than business.
The main reason is money.
Business is for profit.
Here it's just pretend.
A bubble
About to burst.

CONSERVATIVE CLUB

A dangerous thing - - -
Fighting for the past.
A threat of deep rooted unchangingness.
A two-fold goal:
Look to the future
In the structure of the past
And a "liberal" liberation
Of the mind.

Back row, left to right: Warren, Hawk, Guerrant, Beard, Carroll, Lesesne. Front row: Bowlin, Brown.

H. Harrison Jenkins, editor of the News and Courier, was sponsored by the club.

Davidson debaters teamed with two Oxford men to debate U. S. involvement in Vietnam.

DEBATE TEAM

Debate—the pastime of intelligent men
Where a quick mind
And expressive vocabulary
Many times override
The strength of facts.

Back row, left to right: Mildner, Haynes, Rhodes, Mr. McMillan. Front row: Mooty, Earnhardt, Eakes, Hartsell.

Senior Bill Wiseman gave a stirring performance in Laurey's mother questions her treatment of Curley.

Salesman Dave Jones tries to sell his wares to Laurey.

John Warren (Curley) talks with Laurey (Mrs. Dave Fagg) in a scene from "Green Grow the Lilacs."

"The Glass Menagerie."

Two weeks later
Your performance has faded
From the memory of your peers.
The ring of applause is gone.
The old routine is quickly revived.
Three performances . . .
A fantasy too brief.
But a great satisfaction nonetheless.
No one has done it exactly like you.
No one ever will.
Somehow you've become closer
To everyone who has been a part of
That particular play.
The influence on the audience is ephemeral.
You will remember it all your life.

Walt Drake toasts Mrs. Daniel Rhodes in a scene from "The Glass Menagerie."

DRAMA

A pensive Mrs. Sterling Martin played a leading part in "The Glass Menagerie."

ARTIST SERIES

Culture comes hard
To men with
Three reviews next week,
A term paper due tomorrow,
And an invitation to go up the road.
Many never bother . . .
And thereby miss
An important aspect of
Their education
Without knowing it.

Hal Holbrook presented a fabulous evening with Mark Twain.

George Shirley, Metropolitan tenor.

I solisti Veneti, String Ensemble from Venice.

The Original Rag Quartet with Max Morath entertained over Homecoming.

It is a shame that
An incentive is needed
Beyond excellence,
But if "Artist Series" posters
Are to mean anything to a large number,
Then that is what it will take.

John H. Rousselot
Director of Public Relations for the John Birch Society.

Bernard Hollowood, Editor of Punch.

LECTURERS

Archie Davis, President of the American
Bankers Association.

Dr. George Buttrick
Visiting professor from Northwestern.

Dr. Robert Theobald, economist.

Three times a week . . .
The hard seats,
The deplorable cliches,
The quick glances at the clock,
The meaningless announcements of
A coffee hour.
But every so often
A change for the better.

The man makes the difference.
He dazzles with knowledge and eloquence.
All else is forgotten.
A mob of questioners
Join him for coffee.
He makes chapel period worthwhile.

Sen. Strom Thurmond

Dr. Ludwig Von Mises, eminent Neo-Classical Economist.

Dr. Carter Davidson
President of the American Association of Colleges.

Dr. Dietrich Ritschl
Otts Lecturer

MUSIC

First a knowledge of the instrument.
Then practice.
Learn the masters,
Learn the contemporary.
Give it to the students.
Do they appreciate the effort?
Hardly.
But you enjoyed it
And that's what counts.

THE WIND ENSEMBLE

PEP BAND

First row, left to right: Tyson, Visor, a girl, Director Fain, Owen. Second row: Willingham, McRae, Ball, Clay, Aycock. Third row: Staton, Dial, Fleming, Robertson, Klapman, Burch. Fourth row: Seamans, Mendenhall. Fifth row: Bryant, Turner, Anderson, Bullard, Cherry. Sixth row: Anderson, Vinson, Hoag.

Director Donald Plott

A rehearsal with the Mary Baldwin Chorus for the Sacred Music Convocation.

MALE CHORUS

With a long-winded figure
In the pulpit,
They make vespers bearable.
But this is too routine to be satisfying.
The Sacred Music Convocation
And the spring tour - - -
Their moments of glory and reward
For long hours of practice.

Officers: Jim Martin, Don Davis, Ted Winter, Bill Jones.

CHAPEL CHOIR

Front row, left to right: Corriher, Siegler, Skinner, Tallman, Anderson. Middle row: Graham, Duffey, Hill, Cross, Dial.
Back row: Mawhinney, Johnson, Whetsell, Walkup, Cromartie.

The Junior Varsity Chorus
Takes their turn at vespers
Every other week.
No tours,
Little recognition,
But practice
Just the same.

LAMPLIGHTERS

Folk, barbershop, spirituals.
It's all for fun.
A varied repertoire
Of what-have-you - - -
Their pleasure.
An expression all their own.
Singing out,
Even clowning at times.

Left to right: Martin, Whitfield, Jones, Cooper, Davis, Maybin. Seated: Director Bruce.

Union Board: left to right: Jelks, St. Clair, Smith, Dr. Terry, Mooty, Nzongola, Craig, Myers, Federman, Shackelford, Webb.

YMCA

College chaplain Will Terry and YMCA President Murray Smith.

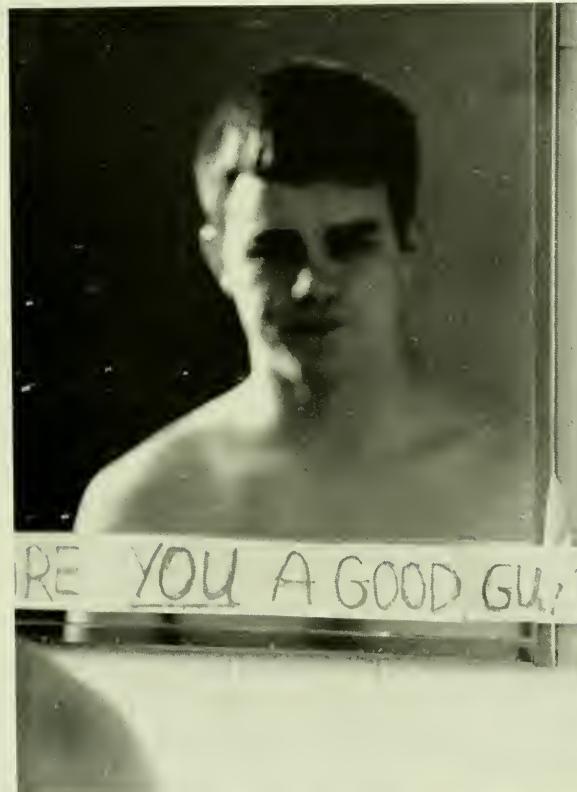

Stokes, Davis, and Burks debate changes in the Honor System on an Open-End.

The Theater of Concern gave us a glimpse of the troubles of Adam and Eve.

Its ideas
Reflect the commitment
Of the institution.
Its activities
Serve more than the students.
The needy of the community
Benefit as well.
No other campus organization
Can make this claim.

Are you a GOOD GUY?

A tutorial service is one of the Y's most worthwhile projects.

Y. M. C. A.

We were all good guys
And gave to the Y.
Sometimes begrudgingly,
But we gave.
Collections aren't taken
At vespers any longer.
It does seem that
We could give cheerfully
To a worthwhile cause
Just once.

Dr. Richard Rubenstein, Jewish chaplain at Pittsburgh, delivered a series of lectures on the "Death of God."

Begun for the first time this year was the YMCA Stimulus program which brought faculty and students together for the discussion of important issues.

PROJECT OF THE AMERICAS

Interest and enthusiasm

Can accomplish wonders.

They may even put Davidson on the map.

This is the beginning of a national organization

To promote student relations

Between the two Americas.

Last summer, an exchange with Ecuador,
This year, Bolivia.
With financial backing
And continued student participation
It can blossom even more.

COLLEGE UNION

Union Board: (l-r): Fagg, Mooty, McQuire, Jennings, Calhoun, Adair, Wilson, Callendar, Ball.

Asst. Director Sterling Martin, President Tom Scott, and Union Director C. Shaw Smith.

The meeting place of tired minds.

I think you're supposed to hit it in one of those holes.

Never ask
Why should there be a Union.
It is
A hideaway for lazy secretaries,
The scene of embarrassment for
Poor chapel speakers,
The workshop of publications,
The meeting ground of Christina's
Dance Club,
A wailing wall,
A chapel hour breakfast,
A place to buy a Davidson garter,
A color TV that doesn't work,
An Open-end,
A ping-pong game,
All-night free movies,
etc.

The scene of long coffee-breaks or a late-riser's breakfast.

COLLEGE UNION

But there is little unity . . .
Rarely is it frequented
By the bulk of its members.
Enjoyed mostly by the
Dependent, independent freshmen
Who come to seek relief
In stuffing themselves
With raw french fries
And weak milkshakes.

A color tube, Esquires, music—a place to relax.

Susie

This trick-shot artist ran in all the balls with one shot at the Union Christmas Party.

The Phi Gam's Waldron was chosen "The Ugliest Man on Campus" from a group of the nastiest contestants ever assembled.

Carol

You can get everything at the Student Store.

CHANGE

II

The torches were lit,
Red beanies rushed onto the field,
An airplane from 4th East flew over the field,
And from out of its grave
Climbed the spirit.
New teams, good teams,
Winning records,
And freshman-hall enthusiasm
Brought it to life.

The prize was ours at last.
Frenzied yells from some,
A trip to the net for others,
 Cheers from all
And tears from a few,
Welcomed the conquest.
A great moment for Davidson.

We must move forward
To even stand still.
The race for excellence
Never ends.

Sparks flew,
Workmen strained,
Press boxes and tennis courts
Were born.
We were present at the birth
And applauded.

Saturday nights . . .
A ghost-like, uninhabited campus.
The personification of
A suitcase college.
But from out of the stillness
Rose the sound of laughter,
Of combo parties, buffets,
And the like.
Fraternity men in the GDI domain—
And enjoying themselves.
An alumnus might well blink
In disbelief.

A senior

. . . Can sense the difference
From a crewcut
. . . To a receding hairline
From Stonestreet's
. . . To What-a-Burger
From a Dole goal
. . . To Terry's thirty-five straight
And more.

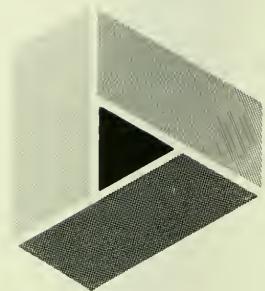

A different setting
But the same old story.
Better adjustment,
But the same rejection.
More extensive rules,
But little enforcement.
A delayed rush,
But the same facade.
Inherent deficiencies
No matter what the system.

A locked door,
A drawn shade.
The tinkle of glasses.
The five o'clock
Cocktail hour is nigh.
No more that deathly fear of expulsion
By the honor-bound guy on the hall.
If it's a part of being a man,
We have matured.
The college can keep its reputation
For all we care.

Less restriction,
Our ultimate goal.
Built in dissatisfaction
Never to be answered completely.
Very idealistically
We believe we can get results.
The act of protesting is comforting
In a small way.
Honor, religion, morals
And the freedom of the student . . .
We'll keep on trying.

SOCIAL LIFE

SOCIAL COUNCIL

Back row: Foster, Aiken, Kendrick, Fagg, Scott, Jennings, Bailey, Vagt. Front row: Booé, Welling, Campbell, Whitson, Davis.

Social Council president Dan Campbell.

Hopefully, eagerly begun
Producing beyond expectations
Moments of happy unity - - -
Lawn buffets, square dances, concerts.

The "answer" for GDIs - - -
And even the cool non-drinkers
Drank of it.
It was fun - - -
On campus, too.

The Modern Folk Quartet raised the roof with a mixture of folk music and rock and roll on Saturday night of Homecoming.

The Four Preps mixed gags and oldies at the fall concert.

Peter Nero brought us a style and quality to which we are not accustomed.

The Platters vocally reminisced at Homecoming.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Long, late meetings meant
Smoky, doodling inattention,
Inspid comments, and stupid rules.
Is a pat of the back a salutary greeting?
Glory went to the Social Council
While we got the drudgery.
We drafted the rules, but were afraid to Enforce them.
Fraternal justice dealt with a hand
Of marshmallow.
But could we do otherwise?
Faculty, administration, and trustees decree what.
We get the how—it's not all our fault.

IFC president Jim Terry.

Front row: Terry, T. Brown, Jeter.

The Phi Gam's display was one of the many built in interfraternity competition over Homecoming.

The IFC brought Penny Clark, Miss North Carolina, to campus to crown the homecoming queen for '65.

The new rush system was governed and controlled exclusively by the IFC.

PLAY

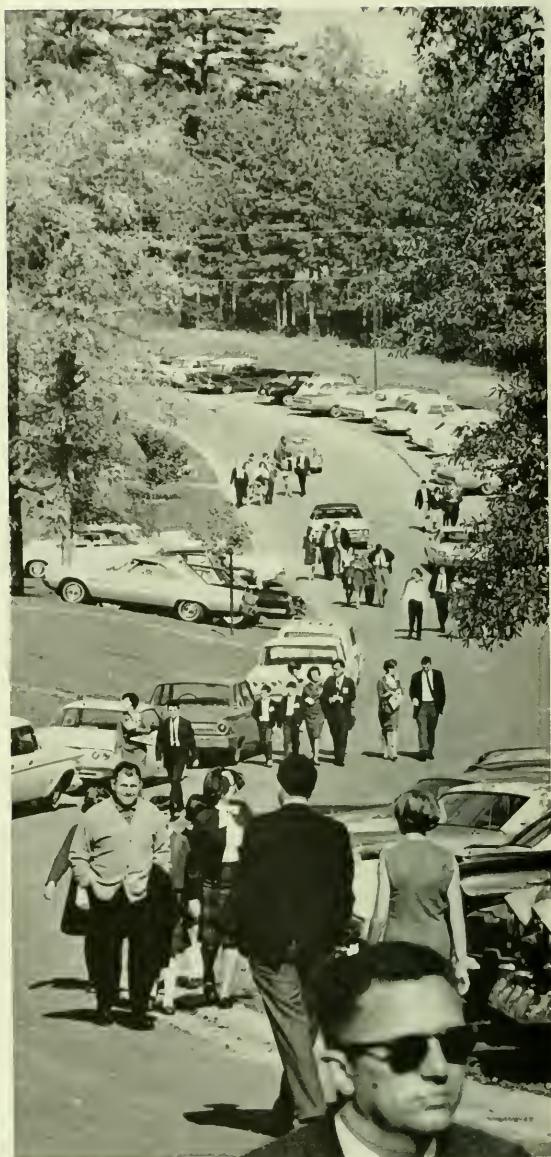

Is play leisure?
Not here.
Frenzy would be a better word.
Three times a year we Forget about sleeping for Seventy-two hours.
Three times at the least.
Countless other times we draw upon
Resources we do not possess,
For the privilege of forgetting
For a moment
Our sundry burdens.

Road trips on Friday.
Fat heads on Monday.
Escapism has many shapes—
The weekend to weekend romance,
A lovely fiction at best.
Home.
Someplace new.
Card games.
Phone calls.
A healthy drunk.
Sleeping in.
Going somewhere because
There is freedom on the road—
Freedom for which each of us,
In a broken moment,
Must cry out.

Lack of day-to-day contact
Makes the weekend dates
Seem special.
But it can't be spontaneous—
Play must be planned
If it is to include a girl.
Blind dates become inevitable,
But the range is wide
And monotony comes
Only by choice.

But play,
In most shapes
Is its own shade
And nothing more.
The Monday-Friday
Place to play
Is three miles from coming back.
The party
And euphoria it promises
Are twenty deadly miles
From this place.
The way back seems far.

After all,
We are only young men
Who cannot be trusted
With social privilege—
Nor with the girl.
Something might go wrong
If we and the girl
Were allowed
The responsibility
Which is trusted privacy.
Play is Doing what we can
With what we are allowed.
The urgency which surrounds it
Will remain
As long as
Restriction inhibits
The long walk to maturity.

ATHLETICS

DAVIDSON ATHLETICS

Dr. Tom Scott
Director of Athletics

Football staff: Standing: Couch, Smith, Blair. Kneeling: Fagg, Tomey.

Prowess in competition
No matter what the sport
Has always been admired in men.
Athletic competition is an integral part
Of the life of any
Well-rounded institution.
Winning is a source of pride
For the students
That comes from nowhere else.
For the world outside
Often knows the school
Only by its teams.
And this association is important
For the student,
For he will soon be an alumnus
Who will brag on the old days.

Basketball staff: Mitchell, Driesell, Holland, Couch.

1965-'66,
A memorable year for Davidson
athletics.
Basketball, tennis, and golf championships
And a runnerup soccer squad.

Successful seasons otherwise.
Was it that weird green drink,
The 129th anniversary spirit,
The lack of a Sports Illustrated
curse,
The girl cheerleaders,
Or simply predestined luck,
That made the difference?
An aberration
Or part of a dialectic?
The Fat Lady
Holds the answer.

FOOTBALL

Front row, left to right: Walker, Little, Burness, Hightower, Hindsley, Perry, Smith, Hill, Blackstock, Short, Cumming, Rikard. Second row: Webb, Kendall, Phipps, Scott, Greene, Solley, Newsome, Gruber, Rollins, Morehead, Dews. Third row: Taylor, Poole, Hartley, Brackett, Jacobsen, Randolph, Giles, Fite, Stoops, Gaddy, Lindsey, Johnson. Back row: Mgr. Lyon, Crowder, Glidewell, Wallace, Thompson, Peel, Waldron, Bryan, O'Hair, Martin, Childs, Howell, Caldwell, Mgr. Robinson.

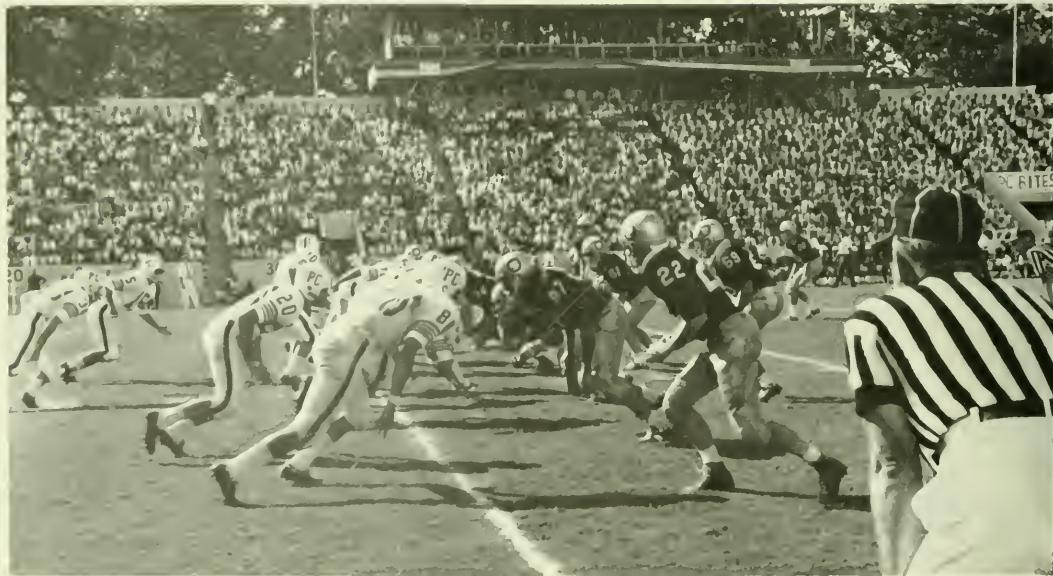

It was amazing
For a while anyway.
New staff,
Belligerent silver and black uniforms,
Spruced stadium,
Metamorphosed players,
An exuberant pep rally,
Channels of red beanies,
And, an interested,
If skeptical student body.
Promise and hope abounded—
And for three straight games

The dream was real.
Charles Atlas-like
Davidson humiliated
Her former tormentors.
Alas and alack lubris!
“We’re going to push
W & M around
And they’re gonna realize
This team is just like
Army or West Virginia.”
But the good guys succumbed 41-7.

The I-told-you-so's
Were finally vindicated.
But not completely.
The rest of the season—
Victories and losses,
But things were never
The same as before.

Defeat was never
An acknowledged certainty.
Sheer guts and determination
Brought an enviable 6-4 record—
And the first All-Southern team nominees
In thirty years,
Pack Hindsley and Dave Sprinkle.
It was a season to remember—
Both for itself
And for an omen of the future.

Run, run, run.
Breathless.
Relentless action.
Heads and feet
Used in maximum precision.
A collision imminent,
But somehow avoided.
A courageous goalie
Recklessly throws himself
On a loose ball.
In the midst of
Deadly flying feet.
Bruises and scrapes.
It's all part of the game.

CROSS COUNTRY

Miles and miles.
Day in and day out.
The stop watch clicks
And you're off.
A steady pace.
Stride, breathe, stride, breathe.
Mechanical.
Follow that path
Which seems to lead
To nowhere. Aimlessly.
The second click of the watch—
You're finished.
If you were faster, it was worth it.

The start.

Little leads pack—but a tough season for the thinclads.

Left to right: Coach Parker, Buffington, Miller, O'Hair, Bryan, Prosser, Webb, Mgr. Shepard. Kneeling: Nichols.

Captain Nichols at work—He, Bryan and Buffington stood out in a so-so season.

WRESTLING

Man against man.
Strength against strength.
Brute force.
Cunning.
Muscles ripple, tremble.
Struggle with all you have in you.
Thump...thump...thump
It's over.

Sight picture,
Sight alignment.
Good position,
Good support
Easy trigger squeeze,
Calm nerves.
The marks of a marksman.
Precision is called for—
One slight twitch
Can spell the difference
Between victory and defeat.

This year, a trophy and an All-Southern shooter, Jim Kopp.

RIFLE TEAM

SAILING

Left to right: Curlee, Hunter, Orr, Reeves, Gillespie, Mendenhall, Wall, Lehman, Coltrane, Kirtley, Graham, Dugger, Bellamy, Robertson.

Davidson's club participated in several meets and held its first regatta on Lake Norman this year.

A breeze is up on the lake.
Davidson's first regatta.
The wind strikes in gusts.
The sails billow.
The craft cuts silently
Through the water.
Unrestrained.
The wind changes,
Sails and boat respond swiftly.
No longer the peaceful drifting
With the wind as before.
The race is on—
And the competition is gaining.

Southern Conference Coach of the Year Lefty Driesell.

All-American and Southern Conference Player of the Year Dick Snyder.

BASKETBALL

The Vietnamese call it
"The Year of the Horse."
Many situations away
Davidsonians did likewise.
Super Horse
Carried a whole team
To a great won-lost record
And tremendous season.
—A good sophomore and junior player,
Diffident, moody,
But an exploding Roman candle
As a senior.
Spectacular, phenomenal,
Best since West in the conference.
Praises proliferated.
Davidson basketball 1965-66
Was very much his story.

Left to right: Hatcher, Stone, Youngdale, Lane, Leight, Clifton. Kneeling: Squier, Knowles, Sinnock, Snyder, St. Clair, Coach Driesell.

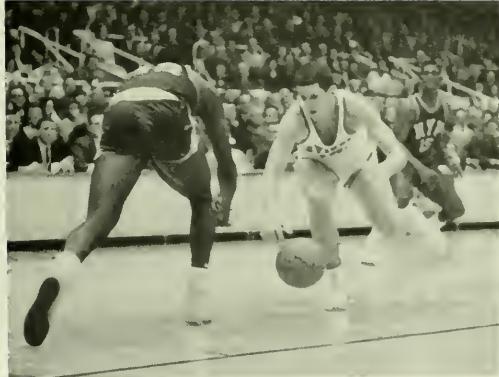

A team matured with his leadership,
Bringing Davidson something,
Fate had previously
And agonizingly denied—
A Southern Conference championship
Over arch-rival West Virginia.
That final surge
Carried over for one NCAA game—
And was lost.
The result was anti-climatic,
Painfully meaningless.
Attaining their glory
The Cats remained
On the stage too long—
And the lights went out.

They all contributed,
Lane's tigerish defense,
Squier's snappy ball-handling,
Youngdale's first West Virginia performance,
Knowles' massacre of Rhode Island.
Their season was predictable
In the conference:
One loss to the Mountaineers.

But it was strange
When out of the family:
Two losses to Wake Forest,
An inexplicable loss to unknown Navy,
A great effort against NYU,
And an almost against St. Joseph's.
It all ended
Shockingly and disastrously
In Raleigh—
But the future promised
That we would be back.

Back row, left to right: Brodovitch, Walker, Davis, Rodgers, Monk, Barden, Stokes. Front row: Friebele, Helm, Beach, Peklo, Richardson, Holt. Not pictured: Irons.

Catfish.
Splash, churn.
Stroke, breathe, stroke.
Exhaustion.
Eyes red from chlorine.
Muscles aching.
One lap to go.
Must keep going . . .
Made it.
Second place.
Try harder.

When everyone was well and in training this team led by Stokes, Holt, and Helm was tough competition for anybody.

SWIMMING

GOLF

With McKeever, Leight, and Brewer coping the first three places, the Wildcat linksmen wrapped up a Southern Conference championship.

The gentleman's game.
Highly individual, competitive.
No excuses for losing your cool!
The blame or the glory is solely yours.
No screaming fans.
No cheerleaders.
Played on courses
Inaccessible to students.
Read about it in the morning paper.

TRACK

Beaten by a nose.

Get on your mark, get set, go!

First at the tape.

Just like a bird.

Fly, man, fly.

Fagg unloads.

Cinders, sawdust, and sweat.
Churning legs.
Huffing and puffing in quick time.
Strained expressions.
The sweat of victory in a moment of exhaustion.
Odd shapes—a spear-like rod, a heavy disc,
A metal ball, a slender pole.
To test coordination and strength.
But the satisfaction comes
Not only in mastering the shapes,
But also in mastering others
Who likewise test the shapes.

TENNIS

Dressed in white,
But not for purity's sake.
A tough game,
An intense game.
Power and finesse
In the confines of a tennis court.
Slam - - - lob
Slam - - - lob
The net ends the volley.
Tempers flare.
A few well-chosen words.
Game-set-match . . .
It ends with a handshake.

Phelps moves in.

A victory for the good guys.

Back row, left to right:
Frank, Cleveland,
Bass, Jennings, Phelps,
Council, Coach
Fogleman.
Front row:
Mueller, Hurd,
Hatcher, Parrott,
Faulk.

Last year's southern conference champions were just as strong as ever, with a crop of good sophomores to bolster a sturdy senior contingent. The Cats placed men in the finals of all the tournament matches and went on to win the conference championship for the second year in a row.

BASEBALL

A spring day.
Hum baby.
Hum boy.
The crack of a bat.
A small white sphere is lofted
Into a clear sky.
A close play at the keystone sack . . .
The man in blue sticks up his thumb.
Y'er out.
Ump ain't got no daddy.
Hum baby.
Hum boy.

If the pitching comes through, we should at least be able to hold our own in the conference. No championships, but no scholarships either.

Front row, left to right: Hinnant, Glidewell, Allen, Durham, Brannon, Elliott. Middle row: Lindsey, Smith, King, Waite, Hyder. Back row: Bryan, Hines, Wilmer, Bennett, Owen.

Not quite.

Wilmer makes the stretch.

FRESHMAN SPORTS

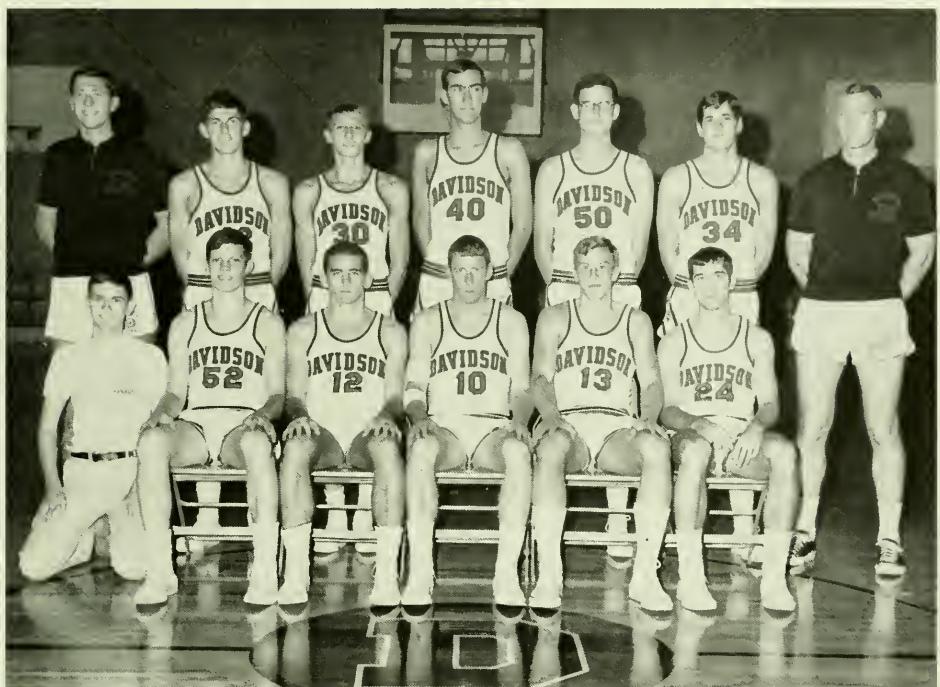

FOOTBALL. Front row, left to right: Schimmel, Carter, Young, Strickland, Davis, Pflugner, Duke, Pittman. Second row: House, Doe, Rice, Adams, Simonson, Bishop, Keith, Deannardt. Third row: Gwynn, Murphy, Shaw, Jackson, Homer, Slaughter, Richmond, Cox, Thornton. Back row: Mgr. Torstnick, Coach Campbell, Mgr. Bryan.

Novices all.
Yet few realize it at the start.
The high-school letter jacket set.
Competition is tougher now.
Many who face it
Find it overwhelming . . .
Join the ranks of the spectator.
Others stick it out,
Become the backbone of teams to come.
Lacking experience,
They make mistakes.
And can be counted on to choke.
But by experiencing,
They learn.
Hopefully they will not make
The same mistake twice - - -
Or thrice.

WRESTLING. Back row, left to right: Roe, Mawhinney, Pittman, Keith, Mgr. Shepard. Front row: Travilla, Schroeder, Hudson, Cromartie, Simmons.

DAVIDSON ABROAD

FRANCE

An opportunity to experience
Another society and country
In a more active way than a spectator.
To be without the restriction
Of home, the church, and Davidson College.

To study in a system where
The motivation is your own,
Not that imposed by writs and rules.
Utilizing the opportunity is the challenge.
The year can be an undisciplined recess
Or one of responsible, self-disciplined achievement.

Sitting: Peter Carnwartha, England; Takayoshi Makino, Japan. Not pictured: Richard Hogben, England.

The college year is just about finished.
Each time I think about this . . .
I think of going to the center of
Davidson campus and shout . . .
Davidson College!! professors!!

Brothers . . .! my friends . . .,
In one word . . .
Everybody here,
Thanks a thousand times . . .
For this experience.

I've reduced
 electric rates 16 times!

It's hard to imagine anything costing less today, but electricity does. In January, 1965, Duke Power made its 16th rate reduction since 1913 — the fifth in less than six years. Now the average cost of a kilowatt hour of electricity to Duke Power's residential customers is actually one-third less than 20 years ago. These rate reductions have helped Piedmont Carolinians improve their standard of living through their ever increasing use of low-cost electricity for appliances and heating.
